

THE SHAKESPEARE CENTER OF LOS ANGELES

IN PARTNERSHIP WITH THE ECONOMIC & WORKFORCE
DEVELOPMENT DEPARTMENT
CITY OF LOS ANGELES

PRESENT

Are you a LA Youth ages 15-24? If so, then Will Power to Youth is looking to hire you! Will Power to Youth is a 5-week program where you will be hired to write, produce, and perform an original adaptation of a Shakespeare play based on your own personal experiences. Professional artists will teach you how to channel your thoughts and feelings into creative self-expression while engaging you in thought-provoking conversations about social justice issues in today's world. You will build literacy skills, educational resiliency, and interpersonal communication tools. At the same time, you will develop work-readiness through an increased awareness of workplace etiquette. Will Power to Youth offers you the opportunity to earn wages for your artistic contributions and concludes with a youth-driven professional theatrical production.

Program Requirement:

A willingness to discuss topics of importance to you, and an openness to listen and learn from the community we create together.

All applicants are required to:

- Apply through the HIRE LA's YOUTH program
- Submit employment application
- Submit ALL necessary documents

Applications without all proper documentation will be added to the waiting list. Once you have submitted all necessary documents a representative from SCLA will call you to schedule next steps.
